

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO
DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

I. L. Dudley Phillips Dissertation Fellowship

The Phillips Fellowship is awarded annually in the amount of $8,000-$10,000 to a qualified graduate student in History to support completion of the dissertation. Recipients must have completed all parts of the Ph.D. comprehensive examination. Candidates should submit a letter of application, a description of the dissertation or copy of the approved prospectus, and a letter of support from the dissertation director.

II. Dorothy Woodward Memorial Fellowship

This fellowship of approximately $8,000 is available for History Department Doctoral Students writing their dissertation in the History of the Southwest and/or Mexican American Borderlands. Recipients must have served as a Graduate Assistant for at least one year. Candidates should submit a short (1 to 2 pages) statement describing their research and plans for writing of the dissertation during the award year plus two letters of support

III. Ferenc M Szasz and Margaret Connell-Szasz PhD Fellowship

This award will be granted to a PhD student who has completed the comprehensive exams and is researching/writing a dissertation on American Social and Intellectual History. The award honors the memory of Ferenc Morton Szasz, remarkable scholar of social and intellectual history, author, humanist, teacher, humorist, and adviser to countless students. He was deeply committed to the profession. Earning a national and international reputation for his wide ranging interests, from things atomic to things religious and beyond, Regents Professor Szasz served as a faculty member in the Department of History from 1967 to 2010.

PLEASE NOTE:

- 1. Application materials for all of these awards should be submitted directly to the department administrator, Yolanda Martinez, no later than April 1st.
- 2. If you are applying for more than one fellowship – be sure to submit separate application materials for each. They are reviewed by different committees.
