History Department Colloquium
Presents
“The Landscapes of Transnational”
Fall 2015 Schedule

All events will be held from 2:00-4:00 PM in the History Department Common Room. The papers for each colloquium will be available the week before on EReserves under History 999.

Friday, September 11th

“Rebels Without a Patron State: How Israel Financed the 1948 War”
Dr. Derek J. Penslar (University of Toronto and the University of Oxford)

Monday, October 12th

“Pierre-Just Marny: A 'Black Panther’ in the French Caribbean”
Dr. Félix Germain (University of North Carolina-Charlotte)

Friday, October 30th

“Imam Khomeini Advised Us to Learn English’: the Howzevi (Seminarian) Women and Clair de Lune”
Dr. Amina Tawasil (UNM)

Friday, November 13th

“One man’s obscenity is another man’s art’: Flamenco and national identity in late nineteenth-century Spain”
Dr. Sandi Holguin (University of Oklahoma)

The History Department Colloquium is supported by a generous grant from the Shoemaker Fund, as well as by contributions from Africana Studies, Foreign Languages and Literature, and International Studies Institute.

For further information, or if you are interested in presenting in a subsequent semester, please contact Dr. Tiffany Florvil at tflorvil@unm.edu.