Nuala Ní Chonchúir

“Now and Then”: The Contemporary Writer and Historical Fiction

Thursday, October 23, 1:30 - 3:00 PM
History Department Common Room

Born in Dublin, Ireland, in 1970, Nuala Ní Chonchúir is a fiction writer and poet. She has published two novels, four collections of short fiction, a chapbook of flash fiction and three poetry collections. Nuala's second novel, The Closet of Savage Mementos, was published by New Island in April 2014. Penguin USA and Penguin Canada will publish Nuala's third novel in 2015.

Nuala holds a BA in Irish from Trinity College Dublin and a Masters in Translation Studies (Irish/English) from Dublin City University. She has worked as a teacher of creative writing, as an arts administrator in theatre and in a writers' centre; as a translator, as a bookseller and also in a university library. She lives in County Galway with her husband and three children.
