

The History Department's Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Section (WGSS)

Presents

A celebration of Women's History Month 2019

All events are open to the public

Tuesday, February 26: Snead Wertheim Lecture with Dr. Kimberly Gauderman, "Indigenous Women and Asylum: Epistemology of Expertise," 2:30-4:00pm in the History Commons

Friday, March 1: Graduate Student Mixer and "Sex, Race, and the 21st Century Academy" Roundtable with Dr. Natasha Howard (Africana Studies), Dr. Myrriah Gomez (Honors College), Dr. Anna Reser (Lady Science, <https://www.ladyscience.com/>), Dr. Andrea Mays (American Studies), Dr. Jennifer Denetdale (American Studies), and Dr. Taylor Spence (History), 4:00-6:00pm in the History Commons

Tuesday, March 5: Screening of the 1933 "Flying Down to Rio" film (Dolores del Rio, Ginger Rogers, and Fred Astaire) with Dr. Linda Hall, 2:30-4:00pm in the History Commons

Friday, March 22: History Colloquium presentation with Maggie DePond (Doctoral student), "Bathing Beauties," 2:00-4:00pm in the History Commons