

PhD students' "individual roadmap," to be completed annually by PhD students before their advancement to candidacy. The form is due by January 31, starting from the first year of enrollment in the PhD program. For students with multi-year funding packages, this form must be completed prior to application for continued funding.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Year and semester of entry into program: _____

Regional Concentration: _____

Thematic Concentration: _____

Outside Field: _____

Do you have any incompletes?

1. _____
2. _____

Foreign Language Requirement:

One language other than English for students of US/US West. Two languages other than English for all other students.

	Language	Date Passed	Coursework/exam	Other (explain)
1.	_____	_____	_____	_____
2.	_____	_____	_____	_____

The coursework credit hour total for the PhD program is 48 hours, of which 30 are core requirements. Up to 24 hours of transfer credit from an MA program outside of UNM, or "applied" credit from an MA program or non-degree coursework taken at UNM, may be used to fulfill requirements. No more than 2 courses of independent study, or "Problems" courses, (HIST 697, at 3 credit hours each) may count toward these requirements.

Required courses: HIST 664, Advanced Historiography and HIST 665, Historical Research Methods or, for students with a concentration in the Middle Ages, HIST 668 when taught as Medieval Research and Bibliography.

	Course number	Course name	Professor	Semester taken
1.	_____	_____	_____	_____
2.	_____	_____	_____	_____

Courses to be counted toward the Regional Concentration. At least 4 courses (12 credit hours) are required, of which at least 2 courses (6 credit hours) should be seminars (labeled with “Sem” prior to the course title and numbered HIST 666 to HIST 695). At least one of these seminars should be within the Regional Concentration but outside of the area of Specialization.

	Course number	Course name	Professor	Semester taken
1.	_____	_____	_____	_____
2.	_____	_____	_____	_____
3.	_____	_____	_____	_____
4.	_____	_____	_____	_____

Courses to be counted toward the Thematic Concentration. At least 2 courses (6 credit hours) are required, at least one of which is outside the Regional Concentration.

	Course number	Course name	Professor	Semester taken
1.	_____	_____	_____	_____
2.	_____	_____	_____	_____

Courses to be counted toward the Outside Field/Public History. At least two graduate-level courses (6 credit hours) from the same department or program outside of History, except with approval of the DGS and major advisor. If you select the Public History option, this latter requirement may be waived with the approval of the DGS.

	Course number	Course name	Professor	Semester taken
1.	_____	_____	_____	_____
2.	_____	_____	_____	_____

18 credit hours of electives.

	Course number	Course name	Professor	Semester taken
1.	_____	_____	_____	_____
2.	_____	_____	_____	_____
3.	_____	_____	_____	_____
4.	_____	_____	_____	_____
5.	_____	_____	_____	_____
6.	_____	_____	_____	_____